Eversheds Sutherland is a proud Amigo Sponsor of the 2018 Hispanic National Bar Association Annual Convention from September 5-8, 2018, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Annual Convention attracts hundreds of attorneys, judges, and law students from across the country, including public officials, business leaders, and General Counsels from many Fortune 100 and other corporations. Attendees will take part in an engaging and comprehensive program that includes Continuing Legal Education (CLE Panels) on cutting edge topics with leading practitioners, national policy makers, and experts from across the country; networking events and workshops; the largest Hispanic Career Fair in the country, featuring exhibitors from prominent law firms, corporations, and government agencies; and a variety of social activities showcasing the best of what Philadelphia has to offer.
