Why Eversheds Sutherland

Experience. From major construction projects to insurance matters, and large acquisitions to contract disputes, we work with companies across a variety of industries when they face a wide range of issues.

We have successfully employed alternative dispute resolution techniques in a wide range of international and industry-specific disputes, including:

- Business Torts
- Commodity Trading
- Construction & Construction Disputes
- Energy
Collaboration. Our arbitration team regularly partners with our firm’s transactional teams to develop highly effective strategies, prioritizing our clients’ business goals.

Industry knowledge. Arbitration clauses are written more and more frequently into contracts in the commodities, construction, energy, financial services, insurance, manufacturing and shipping industries. Eversheds Sutherland lawyers have decades of experience in these industries and understand these arbitration processes and the businesses that use them.

Take Action
We work with Fortune 100, 500 and other global companies to analyze the most efficient and attractive dispute resolution options from the beginning of a transaction, and to navigate cross-border arbitration and judicial assistance proceedings if disputes arise. Our attorneys select industry and foreign experts, skillfully obtain evidence in foreign jurisdictions and engage accomplished local counsel when needed.

Experience
Represented a British insurance underwriter in an alleged fraud claim arising out of the viatical industry.

Achieved a favorable award for a US conglomerate in ICC arbitration arising from its purchase of a Brazilian company from Brazilian and German owners.
