
By Carol Tello and Lauren Stewart (February 13, 2018, 10:26 AM EST)

The new tax law made significant international tax changes that affect both U.S. and foreign-parented multinational corporations. In this video, Eversheds Sutherland LLP partner Carol Tello and associate Lauren Stewart provide an overview of the provisions, including:

- The impact of the reduced corporate tax rate
- The shift to a hybrid territorial/worldwide system
- Base erosion provisions, including BEAT and hybrid transactions

To see video click the link  https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2U_5FSYdBrg&feature=youtu.be

Carol P. Tello is a partner at Eversheds Sutherland LLP in Washington, D.C., where she helps multinational companies and individuals navigate the complex and rigorous realm of international taxation. Lauren E. Stewart is an associate at the firm in Washington, D.C., and advises clients on federal and international tax matters involving mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings and repatriation and tax planning for large public corporations.

The opinions expressed are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the firm, its clients, or Portfolio Media Inc., or any of its or their respective affiliates. This article is for general information purposes and is not intended to be and should not be taken as legal advice.